WHEREAS, on or about December 5, 2005, the defendant Ronald Mayo entered a plea of guilty to count one of the above-captioned Indictment, charging a violation of 21 U.S.C. § 846;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, on consent, by and between the United States and the defendant as follows:

1. Pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853, the defendant shall forfeit to the United States (a) the full amount of the Forfeiture Money Judgment; (b) all right, title and interest that the defendant holds in the Properties; and (c) the Seized Currency.

2. The defendant shall fully assist the government in effectuating the payment of the Forfeiture Money Judgment, the forfeiture of the Properties, and the forfeiture of the Seized Currency. The defendant agrees to take whatever steps are necessary to ensure full payment of the Forfeiture Money Judgment.

3. The United States alone shall hold title to the monies paid by the defendant to satisfy the Forfeiture Money

Judgment following the Court's entry of the judgment of conviction.

4. The defendant is barred from asserting a claim and, unless subjected to compulsory process, the defendant shall not assist any person or entity in the filing or litigation of any claim contesting any judicial or administrative proceeding involving the Properties, including but not limited to the civil action captioned United States v. 67 Stuyvesant Avenue et al., 05-CV-0047 (E.D.N.Y.) (JG). The defendant is further barred from asserting a claim and, unless subjected to compulsory process, the defendant shall not assist any person or entity in the filing or litigation of any claim in any administrative or judicial proceeding involving (a) the monies used towards the payment of the Forfeiture Money Judgment pursuant to this Consent Order, or (b) the Seized Currency.

5. The defendant knowingly and voluntarily waives his right to any required notice concerning the forfeiture of the monies and properties forfeited hereunder. The defendant further knowingly and voluntarily waives his right, if any, to a jury trial on the forfeiture of the monies and properties forfeited hereunder, and waives any and all defenses to the forfeiture described in this Consent Order, including, but not limited to, defenses based on double jeopardy, ex post facto application of any applicable statute, any applicable statute of limitations, or the Excessive Fines Clause of the Eighth Amendment.

6. The defendant shall not, directly or indirectly, engage in any effort to transfer, sell, assign, pledge, encumber or dispose of the Properties in any manner.

7. Upon entry of this Consent Order, the United States Attorney General or his designee, including the United States Marshals Service, is authorized to seize the monies and properties forfeited hereunder and to conduct any discovery proper to identify, locate or dispose of them in accordance with Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(3).

8. Upon entry of this Consent Order, the United States Attorney General or his designee is authorized to commence any applicable proceedings necessary to comply with the statutes governing the rights of third-parties, including giving notice of this Consent Order.

9. The United States Marshals Service shall publish notice of this Consent Order, in accordance with the custom and practice in this district, in a newspaper of general circulation and of its intent to dispose of the subject assets in such a manner as the Attorney General or his designee may direct.

10. Any person, other than the defendant, asserting a legal interest in the monies or properties forfeited hereunder must within thirty (30) days of the final publication of notice or of receipt of actual notice, whichever is earlier, petition the Court for a hearing, without a jury, to adjudicate the validity of his or her alleged interest in the monies or properties, and for an amendment to this Consent Order pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853 and Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(c).

11. Any petition filed by a third-party asserting an interest in the Properties or the Seized Currency forfeited hereunder shall (i) be signed by the petitioner upon penalty of perjury; (ii) set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the monies or properties; and (iii) set forth any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and relief sought.

12. The United States may also, to the extent practicable, provide direct written notice to any person known to have an alleged interest in any monies or properties identified and/or seized in accordance with Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(e)(1) as a substitute for publishing notice as to those persons so identified.

13. In the event that any third party files a petition, the defendant agrees to assist the United States in any litigation with any third party. Such assistance shall include: (a) furnishing all documents and other material that may be relevant to the litigation and that are in the defendant's possession or control; and (b) testifying at any proceeding in the Eastern District of New York or elsewhere as requested by the United States.

14. After the disposition of any motion filed under Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(c)(1)(A), and before a hearing on the petition, discovery may be conducted in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure upon a showing that such discovery is necessary or desirable to resolve factual issues.

15. Pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(3), this Consent Order shall become final as to the defendant at the time of sentencing and shall be made part of the sentence and included in the judgment. If no third party files a timely claim, this Consent Order shall become the Final Order of Forfeiture, as provided by Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(c)(2), giving the United States clear title to the monies and properties forfeited hereunder.

16. In the event any third-party files a timely claim, upon adjudication of all third-party interests, the Court will enter a Final Order of Forfeiture in which all interests will be addressed.

17. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce this Consent Order, and to amend it as necessary, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(e).

18. The terms contained herein shall be final and binding only upon the Court's "so ordering" of this Consent Order.

19. This Consent Order shall be binding upon the defendant and the successors, administrators, heirs, assigns and transferees of the defendant, and shall survive the bankruptcy of any of them.

20. The Court shall retain jurisdiction over this action to enforce compliance with the terms of this Consent Order.

21. The Clerk of the Court is directed to send, by inter-office mail, five certified copies of this executed Consent Order to Assistant United States Attorney Laura D. Mantell, United States Attorney's Office, Eastern District of New York, 147 Pierrepont Street, Brooklyn, New York 11201.
